ONLY ONCE MORE.

There are some we find that are confused on the notice that has appeared on this page relative to the government order of paid in advance subscriptions.

This order is mandatory on our part. Those who know they are in arrears must settle their account before October 1st, and also a year in advance, which can be had until October 1st, 1918, at the old rate of $1.00 yearly. After that time the rate is $1.50 yearly.

Those who know themselves to be paid in advance, although such subscriptions will expire within a few months after October 1st, can renew at the present rate of $1.00. All subscriptions that fall due after October 1st will be at the new rate unless you take advantage of our offer of $1.00 a year until October 1st. There will be but one more notice concerning the government order.

BUY A SCHOLARSHIP.

The war has made great inroads on the attendance of all the colleges in this country, from the largest university down to the denominational and private schools. This means that many of the institutions not having a large endowment and attendance, or both, have been closed for the period of the war.

It is with some degree of credit that our own college has been able to open its doors with an attendance up to expectations, considering these times. Nevertheless, Cedarville College has a greater financial burden to carry this year than ever before. The loss of students means a loss of tuition fees in the face of increased costs of operation.

Local people have had brought home to them the value of a college and good schools the past week. Two non-residents seeking education for their children have purchased farms at high prices that they might gain the good to be shared in these institutions.

The college and the new school have proven themselves real assets, probably more than most people at home realize. The fame of these institutions is spreading abroad and attracting people this way. Remove our educational institutions and churches and land values would collapse.

To lend a hand to the college at this time would be greatly appreciated by the management. Why not buy a scholarship and leave it to Dr. McChesney to bestow on some worthy boy or girl? It will come back to the community in more ways than one, ten fold.

THAT OTHER ARMY IS NOT FIGHTING

Not only America but all the world is singing the praises of the Yanks. They have had their baptism of fire and have nobly stood the test. They have carried the fight to the enemy with a dash and vim that has been irresistible. They have vanquished the best of the crack Prussian division set to stay their advance. They have upheld every tradition of American arms and have thrown a chill of apprehension into the very heart of the German hordes. They are winning their crosses every day.

But there is another army of which no American is proud, nor ever can be. THAT OTHER ARMY OF PEOPLE WHO ARE ABLE AND ARE NOT BUYERS OF LIBERTY BONDS!

In it are the slackers, the pacifists, the so-called conscientious objectors, the miserly dollar pinchers and the Pro-Germans; the cringing, apologetic contemptibles of earth.

And there also to their shame are those who are selfishly indifferent to the sacrifices being made for their protection, their safety, their continued existence in a land of peace and liberty. The smug, self-satisfied apostles of ease, content to let others serve.

This is the army that is fast getting beyond pardon.

Thank God you are not in it!

And if you are, DESERT.

ORDINANCE NO. 95.

An Ordinance to Advertise for Proposals and to Contract for the lighting of the streets, Public Ways and Public Grounds with Electric Light.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the Village of Cedarville, State of Ohio: Section 1. That the plans and specifications for lighting the streets, avenues, alleys, lanes and public places of the Village of Cedarville, State of Ohio, with electric light, now on file with the Clerk of the Village, be and they are hereby approved.

Section 2. That the Village shall contract for lighting the streets, avenues, alleys, lanes and public places with electric light in accordance with said plans and specifications, for the period of five (5) years from the awarding of the contract, which shall be as soon as practicable after the bids are received.

Section 3. That the Clerk of the Village direct and cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the Village for one week, the following notice, which shall be received by the Clerk and be opened at 10 o'clock on the last day for filing them and publicly read by him at the Council Chamber of the Village.

Section 4. That all bids shall be on the blank forms prepared by the Village and filed with the Clerk of the Village upon application to him, and each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check upon a solvent bank payable to the Clerk, in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) as a guarantee.

Section 5. That the contract shall be awarded to the bidder who will enter into a proper contract with the Village to do said lighting and will give a sufficient undertaking for its performance. The check of the successful bidder shall be returned to them as soon as the successful bidder is ascertained, and the check of the unsuccessful bidder shall be returned as soon as the said contract and undertaking are executed.

Section 6. That a contract in accordance herewith shall be made between the Village and the lowest and best bidder, to do said lighting, and a sufficient undertaking for its performance. The check of the successful bidder shall be returned as soon as the said contract and undertaking are executed.

Section 7. That this Ordinance shall take effect and be in force at the earliest possible date, and shall remain in force until the 31st day of Sept., 1918.

Attest: D. H. McFARLAND, Mayor.
J. W. JOHNSON, Clerk.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By Rev. F. B. FITZWATER, D. D., English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1918, by Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 22

FRUITS OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE.

LESSON TEXTS—Matthew 23:14-20; 5:1-12. GOLDEN TEXT—All things are yours; and ye are Christ's and Christ is God's.—1 Corinthians 2:2-3. DEVOTIONAL READING—Galatians 6:22-23. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Psalms 17:15; Isaiah 61:1; Acts 1:25; Romans 2:10; 5:1-2.

I. The Parable of the Talents. This parable, like that of the Ten Virgins, is associated with the second coming of Christ. In both instances there is evident an unpreparedness on the part of the people. In the first case there is failure of the inward life; in the second, there is failure to use the gifts which have been entrusted to them. The first was failure to watch; the second was failure to work. By talents is meant, the gifts which God has entrusted to his servants. It may be natural endowments, special endowments of the Spirit, or it may be the gospel of Jesus Christ. With reference to these talents note:

(1) A sovereign one. The servants belong to the Lord as well as the money. (2) An intelligent one. The distribution was made on the basis of the ability of each servant. The reason one man received one talent was because the Lord knew that he would be incapable of using two or five. (3) A purposeful one. The talents were given to be traded with. They were not given for the servant's own use, but stock-in-trade for the enrichment of the master.

Employment of the talents (vv. 14-18).

In this employment all the servants recognized that the talents did not belong to them. The two-talented man and the five-talented man put their talents to use, which resulted in a large increase. It is always true that the right use of talents increases them. The one-talented man hid his in the earth. The unmistakable sign of the one-talented man is that he is hiding his talent. The two-talented and five-talented men were always busy.

(1) Its certainty. There is a day coming when the Lord's servants shall give an account to him for the use they have made of their talents. (2) The threat. This is at the coming of the Lord. Those who are using their talents will rejoice when the Lord comes that they may present unto him their talents with increase. But the one-talented man will have fear and dread against that day. (3) The judgments announced. To the faithful there was reward. This reward consisted of praise: "Well done; promotion; 'ruler over many things' and entrance 'upon the joy of the Lord.' For the faithless one there was awful punishment which consisted of reproach, scornful beating stripped and cast into outer darkness.

II. Characteristics of the Subjects of the Kingdom (Matt. 5:1-12).

These beatitudes are connected with each other with the strictest order of logical sequence. They set forth the characteristics of those who are subjects of the kingdom. They fall into three groups: four in the first, three in the second, and two in the third.

1. Poverty of spirit (v. 3). To be poor in spirit does not mean to be without money, but to come to the end of self, to be in a state of absolute spiritual beggary, having no power to alter his condition or make himself better.

2. A profound grief because of this spiritual bankruptcy (v. 4). The mourning here is not because of external cause, but a keen consciousness of guilt before a holy God.

3. A humble submission to God's will and obedience to his commands without asking the reason why (v. 5). This is the outgrowth of mourning for spiritual insolvency.

4. An intense longing to conform to the laws of the kingdom (v. 6). Having received the righteousness of Christ as a free gift, every desire of his soul is to be filled with righteousness.

5. Merciful (v. 7). At this stage the subjects of the kingdom take on the character of the King. Christ was merciful; his followers will be likewise.

6. Purity of heart (v. 8). This heart purity begins by having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience with the blood of Christ, and is maintained by living in fellowship with him. Those who have pure hearts can see God everywhere.

7. Peacemakers (v. 9). Those who have been reconciled to God by Christ not only live in peace, but diffuse peace.

8. Suffering for Christ's sake (v. 10). The world hated Christ and crucified him. Those who live for him shall suffer persecution (II Timothy 3:12).

9. Suffer reproach (v. 11). It means suffering under false charges. In such case we shall glory in it because it brings great reward in heaven.

Quote the Bible. Scholars may quote Plato in their studies, but the hearts of millions will quote the Bible at their daily toll, and draw strength from its inspiration as the meadows draw it from the brook—Conway.

Beginning on Monday, Sept. 23, the grocers and meat stores will discontinue delivery of merchandise on request of the government. This order has been in effect for some time in the cities and various towns. The idea is to release as many as possible that can take up other work. Those who have signed are as follows: W. W. Troute, Robert Bird & Sons Co., H. Bates, J. E. Post, R. McClellan, B. H. Little.

Judge H. L. Smith was in town Wednesday soliciting among the business men for help in advertising the coming Liberty Loan campaign, he being chairman of the county committee. The government does not pay for any advertising and requests help from patriotic businessmen and citizens. The newspapers besides giving several columns of free reading matter during the campaign will each give a page carrying President Wilson's appeal for support of the Fourth Liberty Loan. The Judge reports a ready response in Jamestown where he solicited Tuesday and also in this place. He expected to cover Willow Springs Thursday and Xenia later.

Some fifty ladies of Cedarville and vicinity, both young and older, have answered the call to the womanhood of the Nation to prepare to take care of the sick in the homes and render first aid. The trained nurses have either gone over or signed up to go by the thousands, making it imperative for families to be able to follow the family physician. Instructions are being given by Miss Helen Evers, a capable instructor. The meetings are on Tuesday afternoons in the parlors of the Reformed Presbyterian church. All inquiries will be courteously answered by Miss Elizabeth Blair.

Clarence Stuckey, wife and daughter, had a narrow escape last Saturday while driving to Xenia, when their automobile was knocked from the road by a large Columbus truck. Mr. Stuckey, seeing the truck approaching pulled to the side of the road as far as safety would permit. When the truck was directly in front of him it headed direct for his machine and forced it into the ditch. Neither of the occupants were injured to any extent but the touring car was a mass of wreckage. It was discovered that a bolt had dropped from the steering gear of the truck and the driver could no longer control it. The company owning it carried liability insurance and it is said Mr. Stuckey will have his loss made good.

QUEEN ANNE

WHEN YOU purchase a Cheney phonograph, you have the satisfaction of owning an instrument that has no equal.

The Cheney employs a series of acoustic inventions, found in no other phonograph.

These patent-protected features are the secret of its power to reproduce the music of voice or instrument in all its original beauty.

THE FULL tone values are rendered in a way that is altogether delightful.

It is hard to realize that such wonderful music is produced by mechanical means.

The beauty of Cheney tone and of Cheney cabinet design form a combination such as offered in no other instrument.

Let the Family be the Jury

Make sure that all are pleased, when you purchase a phonograph. Let the family be the jury, while the Cheney plays and sings. They will vote for the Cheney—unanimously! Its tone is matchless.

The Cheney plays any and every record with serene purity and perfect expression. It plays band and orchestra records with a splendor and richness beyond the power of words to describe.

Yet how tender and caressing when it plays a lullaby!

You really must hear the Cheney. Then you will realize how it has widened the musical horizon for so many thousands of his friends.

U. S. Seal 136 Years Old. The great seal of the United States was adopted by congress 136 years ago. The design was suggested by Sir John Frestwich, an eminent English antiquary, to John Adams, then United States minister to Great Britain, and was formally accepted by congress on June 20, 1782. It is composed of a spread eagle, bearing on its breast an escutcheon with 13 stripes, and in its talons holding an olive branch and 13 arrows, symbolic of both peace and war. The eagle, the suggestion of an Englishman, has ever since been the national bird of the United States.

Buffon Had Wrong Idea. It was Buffon's idea that all the forms of animal and plant life common to the two continents were introduced here after the discovery by Europeans. The idea was naturally suggested by the rapidity with which this continent was peopled and stocked with domestic animals and cultivated plants. The teaching from Buffon's day until twenty or twenty-five years ago was to the same effect. Since then, however, the evidence has been found to prove this view to be not only false, but directly the reverse of what has been the real order of succession.

MISS BLANCHE TURNBULL WIFE SERGEANT GEO. MYERS

The many friends here were given a surprise when the announcement of the marriage of Miss Blanche Collins Turnbull became the bride of Sergeant George Myers, of New York City.

The marriage has a tinge of war time romance, in that the couple had an acquaintance of only a few weeks. Friday they drove to Xenia and after securing a license were married by Dr. Joseph Kyle, of the Xenia Theological Seminary. Following the ceremony they left on a short trip returning here Saturday. The marriage was a surprise to the parents as well as their many friends.

Sergeant Myers is a graduate of Indiana State University and Chicago Polytechnic Institute, having business connections with a New York house and was in Europe at the time he decided to enlist.

His first training was at Ft. Benjamin Harrison and was attached to the base hospital when he was assigned to duty at Wilberforce, where he is assistant to the medical officer in charge.

The bride is a graduate of Miami University and for the past two years has headed the department of domestic science in the local high school. She expects to continue teaching this year.

Tuesday evening the bride and groom were given a reception by the students and faculty of the schools. The reception was of an informal nature, a cafeteria supper being served. Miss Marjorie Wright presented the bride with a built down silver salver forks in behalf of the school.

SEED, CORN COMMITTEES.

In response to a request for better seed corn the county has been organized for seed corn production this fall by the county agent. There has been a committee of farmers appointed in each township to take care of their local school districts. It is the business of these committees to influence, wherever possible, the field selection of seed corn and early drying. In case farmers do not select seed from the field it is their duty to try to influence them to select their seed corn at husking time. If the selection has been made the seed corn should be carefully stored and at the close of the seed corn season these committees will be called upon for a report as to whether their township has sufficient seed corn for planting next year. In case a man is not going to save seed from his own crop it is well that these committees influence him to get his seed as early as possible and dry it himself so that he will be supplied with good seed corn next year at a reasonable price.

The names of these committees are published for the information of the farmers of the county. In case your committee does not see you at the close of the season in regard to seed corn it would be well for you to visit him and tell him how you have selected and dried your corn and whether you have a sufficient supply.

COLLEGE NOTES

Several new students have been added to the roll since the opening day. The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. have organized and held their first meetings Wednesday. They are getting ready to give their share to the Big Drive in November for War Relief work. The Seminary opened Monday with an attendance of seven. Some more are expected later to enter.

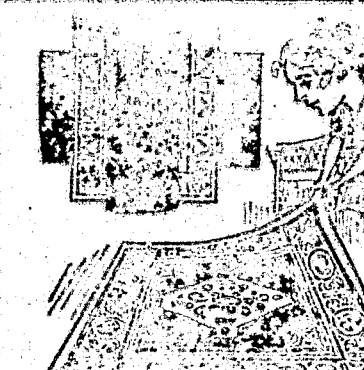

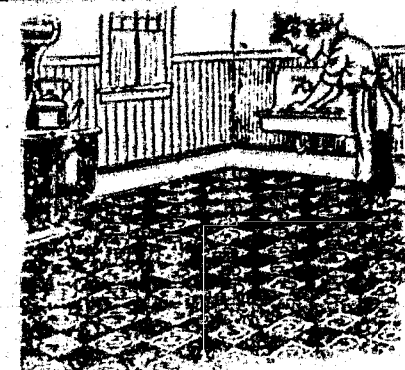

Miss Russell has large classes in piano and theory. Mrs. W. H. McGervey, of Xenia, will be at the college after Oct. 1, to start her class in vocal music.

If there are any boys or girls who would like to enter college yet, it is not too late to register. We shall be glad to have them and arrange a schedule of studies for them.

The college is appealing for 40 scholarships to meet the deficit caused by loss of students through the war. These scholarships are $40 each. Quite a number of people have kindly given scholarships during the past week. We
